

Parties at Restaurant Kanalen

In the beautiful old Annex, there is an unobstructed view of the beams and the high ceiling.
The room is beautiful and elegant with Christianshavner history on the walls.

Here it is cozy and informal
– the perfect setting.

Private meetings with Christianshavner charm

The annex belongs to Restaurant Kanalen. It is an old sailing loft with an open fireplace and exposed beams and just a few meters from Christianshavn's canal. Holding a meeting in the annex gives you time and peace for contemplation, while at the same time spoiling your palate with fantastic food from Restaurant Kanalen.

The venue is completely undisturbed, yet still close to the city and metro, but suitably far from the noise of the big city. By the canal, there is a calmness that is rarely found in inner Copenhagen. Sail your guests to the door and enjoy Copenhagen's nicest district. A meeting at Restaurant Kanalens Annex is one to remember.
